

1868

1847	}	When Alexander Graham Bell was 21		21, his father went to the United States 1868		to give some lectures. He asked Alexander to teach his classes at the Univ. of London while he was gone. There, one of his pupils was deaf, but Alex taught him to talk.

Within 2 yrs both of his brothers became ill and died & Alex was not well. The family decided to move to Canada. He regained his health & accepted an offer to teach the "Visible Speech" system to some teachers in Boston. Then he opened his own school for the deaf in Boston.
